VisionAWARE.org Awarded the The Susan and Paul Ponchillia Publications Award

On July 22, 2010, VisionAWARE.org received the Susan and Paul Ponchillia Publications Award from the Vision Rehabilitation Therapy \(VRT\) Division of the Association for Rehabilitation and Education of the Blind and Visually Impaired \(AER\) at their international conference in Little Rock, Arkansas.

The award is named for the late Dr. Susan V. Ponchillia, a former faculty member in Western Michigan University's Department of Blindness and Low Vision Studies.

From Our Network:

"Congratulations to the VisionAWARE team on this much-deserved recognition! Keep up the great work"

-Susan Olivo (Reader's Digest Partners for Sight Foundation)

"Dear VisionAWARE Team: A hearty congratulations on your latest award. It is great that the hard work and innovation you have brought to the field of vision rehabilitation has been recognized. Keep it up."

- Tom McCarville & Martha Parisian (The E.A.R.S. for Eyes Program)

About the Award:

The Susan and Paul Ponchillia Publications Award was established in 2008 to honor VRT Division members who have written and published for the benefit of the field and for the enhancement of the VRT professional knowledge base. The award recognizes VRT professionals whose published work has contributed highly to the field of Vision Rehabilitation Therapy.

From Our Readers

"I just read your Joe Lovett story after watching the trailer for his documentary. As usual, you and the VisionAWARE team have done an outstanding job on the story and the resources you've attached to it. It's always a pleasure to visit the web site ... We are thankful that we have the VisionAWARE web site to recommend as a resource."

- Regards, M.A.L.

"I would to thank you for your interest and I hope to keep in contact with you. You know that if we help a blind is like giving light his life. Regards and wish hearing more from you. It seems that you are very kind and humanist."

- From an Algerian visitor, whom we helped locate resources for braille music books
